PROJECTS

09/02/2026 – 08/02/2028

Welf@re&Migr@zioni. La digitalizzazione del welfaer: fattore di inclusione o esclusione dei migranti?

Coordinated by Centro Interdipartimentale MIDISS (Migrazioni, Diversità e Sviluppo Sostenibile) - Università del Piemonte Orientale. Funded within the SSHINE initiative 2025 per il "finanziamento della ricerca nelle scienze umanistiche, economiche, sociali e giuridiche" ("Funding for research in humanities, economics, social, and legal sciences) (€15.050,00)

Principal Investigator: Dr. Irene Ponzo

Role in the project: member of the research team

Objective: to address gaps in knowledge regarding the effects of digitalization on access to and use of welfare services, with particular attention to migrant populations; to strengthen participation in international networks in this field. Specifically, the project aims to investigate whether digitalization affects the intensity of existing inequalities or generates new ones.

04/2026 – 10/2027

REACT – Resilience Enhancement of Migrants through Active Community Participation and peer-Training

Project coordinated by CRIMEDIM - Università del Piemonte Orientale. Project funded by Fondazione Cariplo (€112.200,00)

Principal Investigator: Dr. Marta Caviglia

Role: member of the research team, supervisor.

Objective: to empower migrants as active agents of resilience by co-creating a disaster risk reduction toolkit, providing peer training, and testing a community-based participatory research (CBPR) approach to support future community-driven DRR initiatives.

01/09/2024 – 31/08/2027

PREPShield - Preparedness for society in health crises and disasters
